
Question about North American Tour Finals

Posted by topshot - 2007/10/08 21:00

I entered two events 25$ each, bought a t-shirt for 15$ and 10$ for the rating an registration fee which is a total of 75$. Somehow I made out the check for 65$. My question is what is going to happen?

We'll come to your house late at night and remove lawn ornaments totalling a value of $10 until the difference is satisfied.

Or you'll be asked to pay the remaining $10 today at the tournament.

Lol..... I deserve an answer like that for asking such a pointless question that I already new the answer to. I somehow manage to be 10 bucks short when I sent the 06 national entry form in.
